

SHADOWS ON BLEECKER STREET

A MYSTERY NOVEL BY
MILTON POLSKY AND WARREN WYSS

Read the exciting new mystery set in NYC

Praise for Shadows on Bleeker Street

“A fascinating read and a page-turner...the reader gets behind the building facades and discovers secrets of the neighborhood as well as the mystery.”
—Joyce Gold, History Tours of New York, LLC,
author of From Trout Stream to Bohemia: A Walking Tour though the History of Greenwich Village

“This unique musical and cultural crime story mixes cops, professors, and the most brilliant cultural figures of US history. The authors know their historical characters, such as Frederick Douglass, Margaret Sanger, and Walt Whitman and readers will glean insights. Nothing like it has been done before.”
—Saul Landau, author with John Dinges of Assassination on Embassy Row, winner of the Edgar Allan Award for Best Nonfiction

During a three-day Greenwich Village literary tour, Jeff Gardner sets out to find the stolen rare book that led to his friend's death. On his quest, Jeff confronts obstacles that endanger his life and family. But he also encounters maverick spirits of historic Bleeker Street, like Frederick Douglass and Margaret Sanger, who give Jeff the strength to persevere.
